

Can This Process Be Saved??

(Accelerated Improvement Process)

Date: 11/4/2008

Time: 9:00-12:00

Place: Univ. Library
Room 2115E

This workshop focuses on a technique to efficiently improve work processes. Our learning objectives are to:

- Define a “process”
- Recognize when process improvement is needed and feasible.
- Examine tools for successful improvement (and for creating well-designed new processes)
- Discover how to make significant improvements to a process in less time and even with small steps

There will be significant discussion from persons who have worked on improving their own processes and those who have facilitated groups which have improved processes.
